

Sikh Art Intern

THE
SIKH FOUNDATION
I n t e r n a t i o n a l

A rare opportunity for a student to study Sikh Art up close and help the Sikh Foundation catalogue the artwork of the Kapany Sikh Art Collection.

This collection is one of the foremost Sikh Art collections in the world. Artworks from its collections have been loaned to numerous museums worldwide. From this collection, 100 Sikh Art pieces including the personal artifacts of Maharaja Ranjit Singh, a Jananmsakhi collection, a Sikh war helmet etc. have been gifted to the Asian Art Museum-San Francisco to establish the permanent "Satinder Kaur Kapany Sikh Art Gallery".

You should be well versed with:

- Research methodologies
- Grant and other type of writings
- Cataloguing and indexing
- Digitalizing artwork

As an intern, you will undertake cataloging, researching, writing, digitalizing and public relations work. Ability to assist the Sikh Foundation with long-term projects such as publications and reports will be a plus. An honorarium and flexible hours will be set in consultation.
